Theme: Celebration of Unity in Diversity; Author Roy Francis discusses his book

'How To Make Gospel Music Work For You'. Roy Francis' book is a part historical text, part autobiographical account of how Caribbean Christians came to Britain with their music and songs in the 1950s and 60s, as part of the 'Windrush Generation' and how this music has developed into what we know today as British gospel (Spectacularly showcased at the wedding of the Duke and Duchess of Sussex with the singing of 'Stand by Me', performed by Karen Gibson and The Kingdom Choir.)
